Transportation Planning Seminars

Want to learn more about transportation topics to help your community plan for the future?

Contact the Wisconsin Department of Transportation to schedule a free, two-hour transportation planning seminar in your community.

Presentations are scheduled on an ongoing basis and are tailored to your local needs in order to inform residents of critical transportation topics affecting their community.

Topics include:

- Sign controls on and off highways
- Creating a local road network that works for the long haul
- Understanding land use and transportation interactions
- WisDOT's role in driveway permitting
- Planning for compatible land uses near state highways
- Transit basics
- Managing access to get the most from your roads
- Making the most of your community airport
- Agricultural operations and transportation safety
- Accommodating bicyclists and pedestrians to create a high-amenity community
